DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Mc 30-41-1 BANGALORE, 14th March 1942

From The Director of Public Health in Mysore, Bangalore

To The Secretary to Government, Development Department, Bangalore.

GEN & REV SECTT 19 MAR 1942 BEN HS BRANCH

Sir,

I have the honour to state that an M.O. Commission of As.12/- is incurred for sending the pay of the staff of the Malaria Control Unit, Sakrepatna every month. The pay is drawn by the Health Officer, Mudigere Malaria Station at the Mudigere Taluk Treasury and remitted by M.O. to Sakrepatna every month, as the nearest treasury at Kadur is about eleven miles from Sakrepatna

The Comptroller in Mysore has taken objection to the incurring of M.O commission stating that sanction of Government is necessary for incurring such expenditures

I therefore request you to be so good as to obtain and convey sanction of Government to the incurring of M.O commission for sending the pay of the staff of the Sakrepatna Malaria Control Unit every month, the expenditure involved being met out of the provisions for contingencies sanctioned in Government Order No G.L 2248-50/M 1 7-41-38 dated 21-11-1942.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Director of Public Health
